Jonathan Stephenson/Rocket presents a Salon project of Dutch artists & designers

no distinction

contemporary Dutch minimalism in art, design & craft

In The Netherlands art, design & craft are effortlessly interwoven and practitioners move freely between the disciplines. For much contemporary work the underlying inspiration is the De Stijl movement – internationally revered for over 100 years. This project curated by Jonathan Stephenson pursues his consistently minimalist vision and juxtaposes paintings, sculptures, ceramics, textiles, typography, books, photography, furniture and graphics. There is no hierarchy in the classification of the works exhibited.
